

POVERTY BAY RUGBY UNION

FULL PLAYER LIST

1878 - 2022

compiled by Kevin Hare

Members of the armed constabulary had formed what they referred to as a rugby club, at Ormond in 1876 but the first officially recognized club in the district was the Gisborne Football club of 1878.

Initially, home-and-away games were arranged with the Napier Club – when matches were endless gladiatorial mauling contests and tries registered 2 points – but these had to be discontinued when the Hawkes Bay Rugby Union was formed in 1884.

However, once the Gisborne club decided to adhere to the rules of the English Rugby Union it was joined by the formation of the Union Club in 1886 and the 1888 Rover Club in games played on ‘Tucker’s Paddock.’

Two years later, the Gisborne Club and the Rover Club had been supplanted by the Poverty Bay and Turanganui Clubs and had been further joined by Waimata and Waerenga-a-hika.

On 30 August 1890 a meeting of 40 delegates from these clubs, at the Masonic Hotel, agreed to adopt the Auckland Rugby Union rules and the Poverty Bay Rugby Union was formed, with Capt. W.H.Tucker as President.

Affiliation with the NZRU, one year after the founding of that national body, followed in 1893. That was also the year that the Poverty Bay Representative team had its first win, 15-4 over Hawkes Bay, at Napier.

The next year, 1894, saw a 6-6 draw with Hawkes Bay and a 6-19 loss against a Wellington team led by the famous “Offside” McKenzie and containing six other current or later All Blacks.

The game was played in the morning while the north-bound steamer was unloading in the roadstead.

Poverty Bay’s leading player, James Poynter, became the first Poverty Bay player to receive national recognition when he was later selected for the first North Island XV ever assembled and which succeeded 15-3 over the team from the colony of NSW – the first overseas team to tour New Zealand.

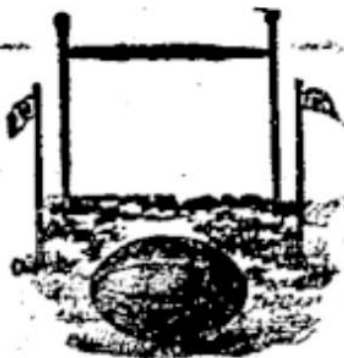

The Following list is all players who firstly represented "GISBORNE CLUB(s)" from 1878 through to 1890 and capped with as #'s a1 - a81 , then from the 1st First class game played in 1890 vs Hawkes Bay in Gisborne through to the final game in 2022 vs West Coast in the Heartland Championship, where Seth Lundon was the 1,555th first class player for Poverty Bay since that first game in 1890.
